

E-Mail Hosting

Hosting e-mail internally can be quite a chore for smaller to medium sized businesses. There are tons of e-mail hosting firms out there with rock bottom prices but if you've dealt with many, you soon realize you get what you pay for. We offer domain hosting/parking simply for the use of the @domain.com for e-mail purposes, or to compliment your application hosting with us.

Our hosted e-mail include:

- POP3, IMAP4, Outlook, and web based mail support
- Spam and virus Filtering
- Calendar Functionality
- Full backup and recovery
- Hosted exchange 2003 packages
- 24x7 Support

We do business and personal email hosting, so there are no minimum requirements for you to host your email with us.

Contact us for a price quote, or to go over your requirements.
